POTTERY WORKER WHIRLED TO DEATH

JOHN T. JACKSON, 40, IS FATALLY INJURED AT STANDARD PLANT

Oddman Dies in Hospital From Injuries Sustained When He is Caught in Machine of Pug Mill in Slip House--Skull Fractured--Victim is Widower.

Caught in the machinery of a pug mill in the slip house of the Standard pottery, Broadway, John T. Jackson, aged 40, an oddman, residing at 820 Daisy alley, was whirled aloft and fatally injured shortly after 8:30 o'clock Thursday morning. He died a few minutes after his removal to the City hospital.

Jackson was working in a crew of three men operating the pug mill. When the belt on the machine began to slip, Jackson's fellow workers left the sliphouse to find the plant engineer. During their absence Jackson's clothing in some manner became enmeshed in the machinery.

Workmen in another part of the slip house heard Jackson's cries and rushed to his assistance. The machinery was stilled and his unconscious form taken from the wheels. Dr. R. J. Marshall was summoned and ordered the man's removal to the City hospital. He was taken to the hospital in the E. G. Sturgis ambulance, but died before surgical aid could be rendered. He sustained a fractured skull and other injuries.

Mr. Jackson, who is a widower, has been in ill health for several months following a paralytic stroke and had been given light employment around the Standard pottery. He made his home with a sister, Mrs. A. C. Townley at 820 Daisy alley, who, with three other sisters, Mrs. William McCoy, this city; another sister in Sewickley, Pa., and one in Hanoverton, and a brother in Wellsville, survives.

GATHER FIRST HARVEST FROM VERDUN FIELDS

VERDUN, Sept. 7—The first harvest gathering on the battlefield of Verdun since the war is being brought by peasants of the little village of Bras. Bras is only a skeleton of broken walls, lying along the Meuse just under the lee of the famous Cote du Poivre, scene of months of bloody fighting, but thirty-two families have returned to town. They are bringing in the corn that has grown on the nearby hills, taking care to avoid the unexploded shells that lie everywhere.

New Musical Cartoon Comedy To Appear At Ceramic "The Captain and the Kids"

"The Captain and the Kids," a new musical cartoon attraction under the management of the Conoly Amusement Co., will appear at the Ceramic Theatre Saturday, September 11, matinee and night.

The management promises a merry-go-round feast of songs, dances, splendid ensembles and the pranks introduced by the two mischievous youngsters who are known to all readers of the comic pages of the daily papers.

Hans and Fritz, the Holland kiddies, are best known for their rough treatment of der Captain. Of course, their aunt receives her share of troubles, but nothing in comparison to the deal handed Uncle Heinie and der Captain. The management promises a splendid cast of well known musical comedy players and a charming chorus of young misses who can sing and dance. "The Captain and the Kids" is a rare combination of wholesome comedy, whistling melodies, catchy song hits, smart ensembles, gorgeous costumes, nifty dancing and beautiful girls.

The book and lyrics are by Richard F. Carroll, and music by Edward Hutchison. It has a genuine plot, a corking good story, which permits all sort of funny situations, and is treated with the high-speed and sure-fire of the modern American musical show.

Try This If You Have Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

"The Man Who Lost Himself"

By ERNEST STACKPOLE • Directed by GEORGE D. BAKER

A startling new story of two men who so closely resembled one another that the wife could not tell them apart.

It is one thing to be a great, easy going Philadelphian, it is quite another to be a wicked, caper-cutting, monocle wearing English Lord.

Victor Jones of Philadelphia was stranded and "broke" in London one day, and the next day he was the Earl of Rochester, possessor of a large estate and a soiled reputation.

If you closely resembled another man and, with his consent, took his place in life, found his wife in love with you, and you with her, what would you do? William Faversham, "The Man Who Lost Himself," will show you America's greatest actor in a startling new picture.

BOB JONES GIVES GOOD POINTERS

ing was at the R. Thomas & Sons co. plant at 12:20 p.m. Thursday.

Tom P. Ulom is having considerable success in his shop meeting work. That at 12:20 p.m. today was at the D. E. McNicol pottery.

Starting Thursday afternoon and continuing for several afternoons meetings Bob Jones will talk from the theme of "The Holy Spirit." The afternoon meetings begin at 3 o'clock and last but one hour.

His subject for the Thursday night meeting will be "The Home and Home Problems."

"I just want to tell folks some things they know but don't often think about," said Bob today.

"The Sins of the Age—the Outstanding Sins of America," was the theme of the preacher Wednesday night. He took his text from Acts 17:30. In part he said:

"The time has come when no man can defend the dance," said Bob. "You go to a dance, you young women whom God has put the flower of purity in your face, and then you take an automobile ride."

"Let this soak in—you can go to hell mighty fast in a Ford automobile. It don't take long in a forty minute ride."

"I hear you say: Bob Jones, you don't know what you're talking about. Let me tell you I do know what I'm talking about. I've been round a whole lot more than you think I have and I've spent hours in places where I know full well some of you people wouldn't stick your nose in."

"The barrier is being pulled down between the sexes. They are starting to see just how close they can come to playing with fire without getting burnt."

"Look you! There on yonder street, that gang about the pool room door. Long comes a girl, and it's 'Hello, kid.' Next you see three or four piled in the seats of an automobile out on some country road."

"Let a moving picture come to town and see where the crowd flocks. You have the most damnable pleasure craze you ever saw. The picture that is the most lewd, where the kiss is the longest and all that sort of thing is where the bunch flocks. They want to see how far the other fellow can go without getting burnt."

"I'm only hittin' the high spots to-night," said the speaker as he mopped his brow and took a few paces backward and forward on the platform. "I'm going to be here a few weeks longer and I'm going to tell some more things I know. I'm not going to pave anything."

"Here's something else I want to tell you about, and I want you to get absolutely straight—then let it soak in," he said.

A hush fell over the audience. One could almost hear a pin drop.

"Last summer I built me a home in Montgomery, Ala. I employed nothing but union labor. I paid union wages. I asked no questions. Now—get this straight:

"The manufacturer or capitalist who rolls up a fortune from the sweat of the brow of the workman and who does not pay his workmen what is right and just, is a dirty, low-down thief."

"Now—

"The workman who does not give an honest day's work for an honest day's wage, is a dirty, low-down thief."

"Just let that soak in."

"I recently heard a public speaker tell about the profanity of the American soldier during the world war, and he laughed as he told the story. I'm true to my country and I'm true to my flag. I'm true and loyal to the American soldier, but I want to tell you right here that no soldier in uniform or out of it has a right to take the name of God in vain. No nation has a right to live that does not treat God right. You have boys and girls in school who make light of the Bible. God never made excuses for the profanity of the soldier. You have to reverence God in this country or it will go to hell inside of a hundred years. No town is above the tongue of its people. You see I'm only hitting the high spots tonight; I'll elaborate later."

"The world wants to take the benefits of Jesus without taking Jesus. That's what's the matter with the world, and the time is coming when this old world will weep its way to Jesus. It don't take any sense to stand and mock. Say! did you ever visit an insane asylum and see how fact, the subject was a continuation of the same theme of Tuesday afternoon.

"Some people think they pray, but they don't, started the preached. You have to approach God. There is a certain way you should approach him. You go to visit the president of the United States and before you can obtain an audience with him there are certain routine you must follow. Same way in approaching God. There are laws which govern prayer—certain conditions of approach."

"There is a lot of talk going on in this country now and there has been for some time about looking upon a beautiful picture is prayer looking at a golden sunset being prayer. It may be all right to look upon the things which are beautiful, but you forget that you have to have the spirit of the Lord in your heart before you can pray as you should."

"I'm conducting a union campaign here," he said in passing. "I preach fundamentals. I couldn't accomplish much if I didn't. I conducted a campaign in the south not long ago and 20 denominations were lined up under one banner and there was no discord. There's not going to be any discord here."

"I have some very good friends who are Christian Scientists, but a Christian Scientist can't pray. There cannot be any atonement unless there is sin. Mrs. Eddy in her theory of Christian Science makes it impossible to pray. Jesus Christ sprinkles the way to the mercy seat with His blood—by His stripes we are healed. When I put my check through the window of the bank of heaven I know that I'll get it cashed. When you put your check through the same window you draw upon the unexhaustable resources and endless fund of God's love."

"You don't get what you ask for because you don't know how to ask for it. Your selfish. You see the big hats the women wear in the meetings and they won't take them off. They're selfish. They don't think of the person back of 'em."

"When you strike at the Sabbath you strike at the American flag. You strike at civilization. Some people have come into America from other countries who are doing their level best to pull down the Sabbath day. If they don't like our country, let them kick it back to Russia or some other place."

"God knows only why you want to pray. If you want a revival in this town you just let God have a hand in the running of things and then see what a big time you'll have. God knows our motives. You put more money into the collection basket on Sunday when a big man comes 'round than you do when God comes along. 'I've always been busy—have always had lots to do. I never worry about dates for I'm letting God do the calling, and I'm doing his bidding."

"Don't be selfish in your prayer. Wouldn't it be blessed and for the people to go about their daily tasks and not talk about the revival campaign or Bob Jones — just talking about Jesus Christ and his love for you? Only those who come empty handed can ever expect to receive any of God's blessed things. You won't get any thing or anywhere with your hands tied or our hands always full. No one ever treated you as mean as you treat God. If you would be as mean to your fellow man as you are to God the first thing you know you would be wearing the stripes of the convict. Folks a whole lot o' things to a preacher that they wouldnt tell to God. You can lie to a preacher but take it from me you can't lie to God."

"When you talk to God you've tackled the hardest job in your life. Before some people catch the power of prayer they have to get hold the hand of some one they have offended. Some of you will never have any power in prayers unless you write a letter to some one you have offended."

"Get this, there are also some folks here who ought to go and fix up some things with their pastor."

"You can't pull the robe of comfort about you and expect to live a life of ease unless you have that hand outstretched willing and anxious at all times to help others—just some one, somewhere. You can't wear wine clothes and live in fine homes and all that sort o' thing unless you help the poor. Don't you ever think that you are ever going to get held from God unless you help some one else. You help others and in time of need you never have any fear about God not helping you when you are in need."

"Some of the conditions and results of prayer", was the theme of the sermon of the afternoon. A number of references were made throughout the talk to those passages of the Bible which tell of the power of prayer. In

"Every Prayer Will Find an Answer" was a solo song by Mr. Jones, the chorister, with Mrs. Jones at the piano. The song was No. 70 in "Victory Songs."

"My! that's fine", commented Bob Jones. "Things are picking up even if it is canning season. I hear a number of meetings where 13 were present. Some folks may say that is a superstitious number, but don't you believe 'em. The Lord was there and that made it 14."

NAME DELEGATES TO CANAL MEET

R. W. Barbour, C. of C. Secretary, and Mayor Ingram Will Attend Public Hearing At Pittsburg Friday.

R. W. Barbour, secretary of the Wellsville Chamber of Commerce, and Mayor George D. Ingram, it was announced today, have been appointed as members of a committee to attend the public hearing on the Lake Erie and Ohio River Ship Canal's several propositions for the stimulation of trade by water which will be held at 10 o'clock Friday morning in the Pittsburg Chamber of Commerce rooms.

Members of the U. S. Board of Engineers in the Pittsburg district in addition to city officials and chamber of commerce secretaries from all parts of the valley, will attend the conference.

In connection with the organization's plan for obtaining data, the representatives from the local chamber will answer the following question: What amount of tonnage produced or used in your community was transported by water during the year 1919 and the first half of 1920? How much more tonnage would or could be transported by water if proper facilities were provided? How much and what kind of raw or manufactured materials would be transported for you over the proposed Lake Erie and Ohio River canal if it were in operation? What will your concern or your community be willing to do toward providing proper wharfage and loading and unloading facilities on the canal and the rivers and lakes connecting with it?

In recent letter to Secretary R. W. Barbour of the chamber of commerce, Burd S. Patterson, secretary of the canal organization, explained the benefits that would result to the city if the project is completed. He stated that it would place the community in connection with the Great Lakes and New York harbor through the New York barge canal by water. "It would enable your people to get such raw materials and manufactured materials as they might need from the Great Lakes ports, New York and the east and they could send their own products to the places much cheaper and more quickly and regularly than by rail.

MISS MARY MICK BRIDE OF EDWARD McLAUGHLIN

Rev. Father Nolan officiated at the marriage of Miss Mary Mick of the Campground road, and Edward McLaughlin, son of Mr. and Mrs. John McLaughlin of Ross Meadows, which was solemnized at nuptial mass this morning at 9 o'clock in the Church of the Immaculate Conception.

The bride was attired in a gown of white net with bridal veil and carried a bouquet of white bridal roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Anna, who as bridesmaid, wore a frock of white net and carried pink and white sweet peas. Michael Arbrick of Cleveland served as best man.

Following the ceremony, a reception was tendered the newly married couple at the home of the bride's parents. American beauty roses and sweet peas were used in the decorations of the home, and in the appointments at the wedding dinner at which covers were laid for seventy-five guests.

Upon their return from an eastern honeymoon trip, Mr. and Mrs. McLaughlin will reside in East Liverpool.

POLICE BEGIN CLEAN-UP; NAB SIX IN RAID

Inaugurating what Chief of Police John Reil terms a general cleanup, police last night raided a place in lower Main street, arresting the proprietor and five inmates. The proprietor, giving his name as John Smith, posted $20 for his appearance at a hearing to be held within the next few days. He was charged with "keeping a place where gambling is permitted." The other men posted forfeits.

"Cleanup the place," is the order in the hands of police here, said Chief Reil today, who intends to wage a ruthless campaign on law violators during the months time allotted him by council in which to "prove he is on the job."

BANKS HELD ON THEFT CHARGE

Man, Alleged to Have Stolen
Two Suits of Clothes, Jailed.

Willie Banks, colored, charged with having stolen two suits of clothes and a coat from the home of Willis Adams, a resident of Bridgewater, several days ago, was arrested here at 2:30 o'clock this morning by Chief of Police Reil after an exciting chase. Banks, it is claimed, took the clothes from Adams' room and left Bridgewater before the former discovered his loss. Coming to this city, he obtained lodgings in the east end of town. Adams, learning of the colored man's whereabouts, notified the Chief of Police, and a search was begun last night. Banks, learning, it is said, that the police were on his trail, left his boarding house just before the authorities arrived there. Then ensued a chase through the streets of the east end which ended on the hillside above Highland Heights when Chief Reil caught the man hiding in a clump of brush.

The clothes were found in a cleaning house here last night. It is claimed that Banks deposited them with the cleaner and asked for $20 on the outfit so that he might go to Wheeling. He will be taken back to Bridgewater, said Chief Reil.

APPLE PIE WEEK.

They have been celebrating "Apple Pie Week" in New York state. It is a part of the campaign to interest New Yorkers and people in adjoining states in the bumper apple crop which is making the orchard a thing of glory.

The idea, of course, is to stimulate the retail demand for apples and start the market to moving actively enough to pay dealers for ordering and farmers for the delivering the fruit. The name is enough to guarantee an unprecedented demand. Breathes there the man with soul so dead that his mouth would not water at the thought of a juicy, brown apple pie?

Most of the fruit-growing states report great harvests. There are apples, peaches, pears and plums in abundance. It is generally conceded that they should be cheaper than they have been for years, but they will not be unless the consumer will take them off the dealer's hands in large enough quantities to pay him for handling them at lower rates.

"Apple Pie Week" is a good slogan, and it could be changed to Peach Shortcake Week, or Pear Salad Week, or even French Fried Tomato Week to suit the crop and the region, with results undoubtedly beneficial. Once the habit of local co-operation has been formed, it could be broadened to All Fruits and Vegetables in Season Week, with great profit to home-growers and neighboring consumers.

THE REVERSIBLE LEGISLATURE.

The Tennessee legislature, which in the opinion of most Americans covered itself with glory by its ratification of the suffrage amendment, has dimmed that glory by its subsequent action. The fleeing of a group of legislators over the line immediately after the vote, in a futile effort to hinder the technical completion of ratification formalities, was hardly a spectacle to win admiration in any quarter. The amazing reversal of its vote by the house of representatives, on the return of the absconding members, added to the confusion and disillusionment of the public, without interfering, apparently, with the net result.

The governor certified the act of ratification, the federal secretary of state promptly proclaimed the suffrage amendment in effect, and most people thereupon regarding the matter as settled, and so regard it still. It does not seem possible that any legislature, after having voted to ratify a federal amendment, can reverse its vote, especially after the federal government, acting on that vote as one of the requisite three-fourths, has declared the proposed amendment in effect. If such reversals were permitted, constitutional amendments would be always at the mercy of legislative whims and grudges in some state or other.

It may be necessary, however, to have the issue settled with finality by the highest authority, the United States Supreme Court. The sooner such action is taken, the better, in order that there may be no shadow as to the legality of the feminine vote in November.

SPENDING.

The country Gentleman says it is "going to keep on using argument and ridicule, even abuse if necessary, until signs of an abatement in this national insanity begin to show themselves and until the tide sets somewhat strongly in the direction of industry and thrift, which are the only virtues which can pull us out of the hole we are in." One of its points is particularly well made—that "granted we have earned a good time, we have earned a good many things that we cannot get and cannot afford to have, and this is no time to cash in on our personal privileges."

This is shrewd wisdom. There are times when people are building up a new business or reorganizing an old one when, no matter how hard they work or how much they earn, theoretically or in cash, everything must go "into the business." Only the most closely reckoned living expenses can be taken out for current use. Everything else must go toward the basic needs of getting the business on its feet, or disaster will follow.

The nation is in such a period of its growth. The war disorganized our whole business, national and individual. As a nation and as individuals, we are running 'way behind where we ought to be at this time. If we spend everything we make as we go along we shall never catch up. But if we work as hard as we can, earn as much as we can and spend as little as we can, the saving difference between our earning and spending will soon fill up the hole and put us where we ought to be. Then, and not now, we can afford to cash in.

BULLETS FOR SPEEDERS.

A policeman in a Chicago suburb, seeing an automobile speeding through town at 50 miles an hour, tried to stop it. The two men in the car laughed at him, and rushed on. The policeman calmly drew his revolver and took a shot at the disappearing car. Still it roared on. He emptied his revolver then, and the car stopped. The driver had a bullet in his shoulder, and his festive companion had one in his neck. Both are now in the hospital.

It was drastic treatment, but salutary. It would not be right to shoot at every motorist who breaks the speed laws and disregards a policeman's warning, but if there is no other way to enforce respect for the authority the policeman represents, he is justified in taking such action in extreme cases. His bullets, at the worst, can do no more harm than the speeding car is likely to do. An occasional example of this sort will give the law-breakers of any community a new idea of the dignity of the law and the rights of the public.

If the American people keep on using 15,000,000 gallons of gasoline a day and producing 13,000,000, automobiles will be running on less'n nothing, one of these days.

NEW YORK LETTER

By O. O. MCINTYRE.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—No class of professional men live up to the last notch of their income so consistently as magazine writers. Isaac F. Marcer is said to be the only one who has ever announced that he intended to retire. He is said to be wealthy. Irvin Cobb has one of the most magnificent country places on the Hudson but he confessed that the only possible reason for a recent Chautauqua engagement was because he needed a new garage and a back porch.

Many of them live in the world of fiction where values are unreal and no doubt they apply these values to their every day life. Scarcely a magazine writer or novelist in New York who does not own a summer home could be found. Dana Burnet has a magnificent estate at Ogunquit, Me. Will Irwin's place is one of the sights of Scituate, Mass. Arthur Somers Roche has a castle built on a rock at Tokeneke, Ot. Donn Byrne has a home and private golf course near Darien.

Only a few years ago these men were grubbing away at space rates on Park Row and dinging—when they had the price—at Dolan's "Ham And" same tuary near the World Building. Most of the present day writers too were valued patrons of Doc Perry's famous apothecary shop. Good Old Doc has gone and his principal wares are banded by the government.

Despite the fact that the successful magazine writer may easily triple his writing income through the agency of the movies, he manages to live accordingly so that there will be no annoying surplus. The managers of the best restaurants say that writing men are the best customers. They never inquire the reason why a matter of 24 hours as hiked the price of a lamb chop from 45 to 90 cents.

They patronize the best tailors and having large veins of sentiment keep many florists and bon-bon makers in limousines. And yet despite this apparent profligacy, it rarely happens that a magazine writer dies in want. He generally has foresight enough to salt something away to butter over the lean days but his friends are always amazed at how he manages to do it.

He was pointed out to me by a boulevardier as the best dressed man in New York—a man who kept shirt and scarf commissioners in Paris and who had tweeds brought from Bond Street, London, months in advance of the season. And as he was window shopping I had a chance to survey his sartorial splendor. It was morning. His hat was a semi stiff of dark grey, with the rim turned up high all around and down well over his head—English style. His collar was high in the back and came down to a lower degree in the front. It was a turnover. He wore a plain white silk shirt. His cuffs were square cornered and were held by black and white enamelled sleeve buttons. His tie was a dark brown. His suit of dark gray, two button sack, rather closely fitting but not so exaggerated as the Broadway styles. In his pocket was a monogrammed handkerchief—with the monogram showing. His shoes were rubber soled cordovans. He carried gloves and a mackintosh walking stick in his hand.

In a vacant lot in the Bronx a ten year old youngster was pummeling a diminutive eight year old. A passing Scoutmaster sought to intervene with the query: "What's all this about?"

The battle stopped long enough for both youngsters to grin up at him. "Aw, nuthin'" they said. "We're just playin' Elwell beatin' up McGraw."

WOMEN WILL AID AT G. O. P. HEADQUARTERS

Mrs. Ellis A. Yost, who fought so hard for the passage of the suffrage amendment during the extra session of the legislature and who was the man behind the gun in the passage of the Yost law which made West Virginia a dry state has gone to Charleston to make arrangements for the organization of the Republican women voters of the state and assume personal direction of the headquarters. Headquarters have been established in connection with the Republican state headquarters and Mrs. Yost is planning to spend most of her time from now until the election in Charleston looking after the work. Mrs. Yost was a dominant figure in the fight which was waged during the extra session of the legislature when the suffrage amendment was adopted last spring after the sensational trip of Senator Jesse Bloch, of Wheeling, who made from Pasadena, Cal., in order to cast the deciding vote.

BEATS GASOLINE AT 15 CENTS A GALLON

New Invention Makes Fords Run 34 Miles on Gallon of Gasoline and Start Easy in Coldest Weather. Other Cars Show Proportionate Savings.

A new carburetor which cuts down gasoline consumption of any motor, including the Ford, and reduces gasoline bills from one-third to one-half is the proud achievement of the Air-Friction Carburetor Co., 829 Madison St., Dayton, Ohio. This remarkable invention not only increases the power of all motors from 30% to 50%, but enables every one to run slow on high gear. It also makes it easy to start a Ford or any other car in the coldest weather, without previously warming the motor. With it you can use the very cheapest grade of gasoline or half gasoline and half kerosene and still get more power and more mileage than you now get from the highest test gasoline. Many Ford owners say they now get as high as 45 to 50 miles to a gallon of gasoline. So sure are the manufacturers of the immense saving their new carburetor will make that they offer to send it on 30 days' trial to every car owner. As it can be put on or taken off in a few minutes by anyone, readers of this paper who want to try it should send their name, address and make of car to the manufacturers at once. They also want local agents, to whom they offer exceptionally large profits. Write them today.—Adv.

POTTERY NEWS

NEW KILN WILL BE FIRED SOON

Potters Co-Operative Company, With 18 Kilns One of Largest Firms In District.

Within a few weeks the Potters Co-Operative Co., will be ready to place and fire a new glaze kiln now being finished at their No. 2 plant. This will give the firm a total of 18 kilns, making it one of the largest individual operators in the local district.

No addition to the decorating kiln capacity is contemplated at this time. General business with this firm is good but like all other manufacturers it has not been able to obtain raw materials in the quantities desired.

Puts New Truck in Service. The Bough Cooperage Co., has placed a new truck in service, it being delivered within the last few days.

Abandon Plant Plans.

Plans considered early in the year to erect a new pottery at Coshocton have been abandoned. One interested in this proposition has said:

"All they wanted in Coshocton was about everything on the map. The proposition could have been floated financially, but at a very high rate of interest. On top of this an unusual demand for common stock was made. At the end of a given term, when loans had been discounted there would still be a lot of common stock sold on the outside, which would not have been returned the company. The best to do under the circumstances was to give up the whole proposition, and this was done."

We guarantee a small bottle of Lavoptik to help ANY CASE weak, strained or inflamed eyes. Aluminum eye cup FREE. Jesse D. Holloway, druggist.

Knowles In Los Angeles

Los Angeles, Calif., is being made the headquarters of H. H. Knowles, formerly of this city, who is now on the Pacific coast arranging for the erection of a generalware pottery plant. Offices have been established at 317 West Pico Avenue. Although some excellent sites have been offered Mr. Knowles in letters received here, announced that no selection will be made for several weeks.

New Brokerage Firm

Stephens & Swingwood, is the name of a new firm of crockery jobbers here. Both men are well known. Mr. Swingwood having been associated with the trade for many years as a decorating kilnman. The firm is developing quite a business among the country merchants.

Trade Vote No Surprise.

The vote of the sanitary trade in dissolving the action of the national convention which insisted the submission of the sanitary wage agreement to a vote of the trade met with no surprise in this district.

It has been indicated that in practically every organization a committee is appointed with power to act, and it has been said by some delegates to the convention that faith in the executive committee of the Brotherhood should not falter.

For many years the executive committee of the Brotherhood has worked for the best interests of all concerned in its different wage conferences, and as a result the pottery employees, many in the trade contend, have no reason to complain.

It has also been said that this particular resolution was opposed rather strenuously upon the convention floor and now that it has been knocked out by the trade at large, it seems reasonable to believe that the question was not as popular as some expected it would be.

Tries New Oil Burners.

In the firing of another kiln by oil at the local plant of R. Thomas & Son, a saving of 300 gallons of oil was noted. The company is now conducting experiments with other burners, with a view of obtaining the best the market affords. Records show it requires less time to fire these kilns with oil than it does with natural gas.

Just What She Needed.

"I used a bottle of Chamberlain's Tablets some time ago and they proved to be just what I needed," writes Mrs. Volta Bankson, Chillicothe, Mo. "They not only relieved me of indigestion but toned up my liver and rid me of backache and dizziness that I had been subject to for some time. They did me a world of good and I will always speak a good word for them."

VISION AND HEALTH

When you consider that one-half of the cranial nerves are directly connected with the eyes and their function of sight, it is easy, then, to understand the mastery which the eyes possess over our bodies—and our health. In order that you may have the maximum strength and efficiency you should possess health, vigor, a clear mind, and keen eyesight. Poor sight, good health, and a keen mind never go together, for faulty sight destroys the balance of the entire nervous system. Dimness of vision means a clouding over of the brightness of life—old age comes on quickly, then. So keep your vision unspoilt, and of all things possible you will have done the one most certain to contribute to your health, your happiness and your success.

condition. This you get from one or two Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Relief is usually very prompt. The regular use of these tablets after meals gives the stomach and small intestine substantial help to digest food and you will then be bold enough to eat baked beans, fried eggs, sausage, buckwheat cakes and many other things you thought would make your stomach miserable. Get a 60 cent box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at any drug store and you will then eat whatever you like and be fortified against the acid, sour stomach due to indigestion or dyspepsia.

LUCKY STRIKE
"IT'S TOASTED"

LUCKY STRIKE cigarette—it's toasted. Lucky Strike tobacco—it's toasted. Both are toasted. You cannot get the remarkable and unusual flavor of toasted Burley tobacco in any other brand.

How is it that this toasting process preserves successfully the original Burley flavor? Because it's sealed in.

Take the case of the bee and the honey. The bees have the right idea. To lock in that fragrant and delightful flavor of clover honey they put a thin coating of wax over the whole honey-comb.

You know yourself that honey can stand unbroken on a shelf for months or years, and be just as good when it's used.

And that's what happens with the Burley tobacco used in making Lucky Strike.

In each Burley leaf there are little pores like a sponge. In the heat of toasting these pores are sealed. The Burley flavor is there, inside.

When you light your Lucky Strike cigarette or your pipe full of Lucky Strike tobacco the heat releases the Burley flavor for your benefit.

AMBASSADOR DAVIS NOW AT CLARKSBURG

John W. Davis, former Clarksburg lawyer and now Ambassador to Great Britain, arrived at his home in Clarksburg Wednesday after a two years absence from his native city and was greeted at the railroad station by a committee of leading citizens. He was escorted to the Walde Hotel, where a breakfast was served in his honor.

At noon Mr. Davis was a guest of honor of the Clarksburg Rotary club at the Walde along with Rotarians from England who are members of the Society of Glass Technology of Great Britain, some 35 of whom are touring the glass manufacturing and related industries of the Clarksburg district.

Mr. Davis' plans for the immediate future have not as yet been formulated, although he expects to remain in Clarksburg for a visit with relatives and fellow townsmen for about ten days, when he will return to Washington on official business.

Preparations are well under way for a mammoth reception to be given by the people of Clarksburg in honor of the Ambassador Thursday evening, probably on the courthouse plaza.

the last session of the circuit court and sentenced to two years imprisonment in the State penitentiary, was arrested Tuesday and lodged in the county jail pending his removal to prison.

Kanoski's case was taken up to the supreme court and that court recently sustained the circuit court which resulted in Kanoski's arrest. Kanoski is a man of wealth and is the proprietor of a large store in Avenue A, Weirton.

HEREFORD BULL WINS BLUE RIBBON PRIZE

James Perfection, two year old Hereford bull, owned by C. A. Smith, of this city, took the blue ribbon prize at the West Virginia state fair at Wheeling Wednesday. The bull was judged as the best animal of any class, age or breed, exhibited at the fair.

The bull was purchased from James McCrary of the Lakeview farms, in Indiana, several months ago, for the Smith farm, known as "Hillcrest" near Pughstown. Mr. Smith also had an entry at the state fair several head of thoroughbred cows which won second and third prize, out of several hundred entries.

The bull that captured the blue ribbon prize at the state fair at Columbus last week competed against Mr. Smith's entry. The winner of the Ohio state blue ribbon was awarded second prize by the judges at the Wheeling fair.

Ross Burk, a farmer, living near the Washington school house, Grant district, is the champion bean grower of Hancock county, if not in the entire state of West Virginia, his Chester friends declare.

Burk claims to have produced a green bean this year, which measured 26½ inches in length and in the pod were thirty beans. This bean, he asserts, is the edible, one bean being sufficient to make a meal for an ordinary sized family.

Mr. Burns declared that the vines also produced other large beans, although the one measuring more than two feet in length was the largest.

BRICKLAYERS AT WORK ON MASONIC TEMPLE

Bricklayers have started to work on the Masonic temple addition in First street. The scarcity of cement, brick and other materials has held up work for several weeks, although an effort will be made to hurry the improvements through to completion.

Science Now Makes Amazing Discovery Of How Any Woman Who Is Nervous, Irritable, Careworn and Run-Down May Often Quickly Increase Her Strength and Make Herself Far More Lovely Without Cosmetics or Stimulating Drugs.

"When you see a woman who never tries to better herself—a woman who has no other interest than remaining in the same old rut and is willing to go through life without ever making her dreams come true, you will always find that the lack of interest and enthusiasm are caused by a loosed vitality and a weakened physical condition.

"Like thousands of others, she is probably fretting, and worrying over supposed ailments, restlessness, at night, nervousness, the daytime, visiting, wondering what is destroying her health and happiness. In reality every organ of her body may be crying for nourishing vitamins such as are found in certain raw vegetables and grains and which Nature undoubtedly provided to build buoyant health and preserve youthful beauty.

"Since Modern Science has at last brought forth the amazing facts of how people become weakened and run-down, pale and haggard, careworn and unattractive, would surely seem to show that practically any woman who is in affliction with organic disease may quickly build up the radiance of perfect strength and vitality, building firm flesh and tissue or giving clearness and beauty to the skin. But with the introduction of Vitamon, a concentrated form of vitamins combined with other health-giving elements, there is no reason why any woman should not expect to be just as healthy, beautiful and well-proportioned as Nature intended. By taking only a short course of Vitamon I am convinced that many a pale, anaemic, delicate woman may often quickly build herself up to a renewed vim and power and marvelously enhance the beauty of her appearance."

NOTE—Every woman should find keen interest in the above statement by Dr. John J. Rudolph, a former Health Commissioner, City of New York Hospital Staffs, and Graduate of the University of Michigan. FALL GRID GAMES LOOK PROMISING Carefully Arranged Schedule Which Opens Sept. 25, Indicates 1920 Season Will Be Most Successful.

By H. C. HAMILTON

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—Football will be a delectable morsel for followers of that great college sport this Fall—and indications point to the most successful season the game ever saw, notwithstanding the fact that records reaching high into the thousands already have been established at classic games. The enormous crowds which have witnessed baseball battles during the summer only foretell what may happen when Yale and Harvard, Ohio State and Illinois, Princeton and Harvard, Columbia and Pennsylvania, Pittsburgh and West Virginia and Cornell College and Harvard meet this year. Chances are that the great crowd which saw the Yale-Harvard contest three years ago in the Yale bowl will be pressed to the limit by enthusiasts this fall.

On the same day that Harvard is struggling with the little school's representatives Yale will be entertaining a Western visitor at New Haven. West Virginia, another miracle team of the West, found a place on the Yale schedule this year and will make the most of it. West Virginia's team does not figure so strong as it did a year ago, but the eleven is, nevertheless, a powerful one and destined to worry the Yale men.

The following Saturday Princeton will entertain the Mountaineers at Princeton, where they were unmercifully drubbed by the West Virginians last fall.

The first of the ever-interesting struggles between the so-called "Big Three"—Harvard, Yale and Princeton—comes on Nov. 6 when Harvard takes on Princeton at Cambridge. The following Saturday Princeton and Yale will lock horns at Princeton.

As usual Harvard and Yale are scheduled for the Saturday preceding Thanksgiving Day, and this year the scene will be set in the Yale bowl—the largest athletic amphitheatre on this side of the Atlantic. That all records for attendance will be smashed is practically a foregone conclusion.

Army and Navy, as in former years, wind up the season's important contests with their annual struggle at the Polo Grounds, New York, on Nov. 27.

ENGLISH PUGS HAVE NO PUNCH

London Scribe Scouts Old Idea That Cleverness Alone Will Win.

LONDON, Sept. 9.—"It is time that our young boxers developed an appreciation of the power of a punch." For many years it has been a gospel in British boxing circles that cleverness which wins. In a measure that is true, but there remains the fact that one punch that is hard enough and delivered in the right place will by its effectiveness more than counterbalance all the scientific scoring of points which might have been accomplished by the receiver of that big hit in the preceding rounds.

Thus writes "Corinthian," a well-known English sporting writer in the Daily Chronicle.

The same sentiment is being echoed by other sporting writers in London newspapers. Even the good old conservative, straight-laced papers which are read by comers in first class railroad compartments on their way to London have taken this subject.

Their style in dealing with boxing is somewhat heavy, but it suits the mentality of the upper crust of English society who take the manly art of self-defense quite seriously. The general opinion gleaned from the London newspapers is that the English are walking up to the fact that in developing their scientific and clever scrapers they have overlooked the fact that an English pug has to pack a haymaker to get away with any of the titles which are held by Americans.

Freddy Welsh is an example of this school of British boxers. It is to be remembered that Freddy could step backward around the ring about twice as fast as the average fighter could step forward.

Joe Beckett says that he was just feeling Georges Carpentier out when the Frenchman hit him. Maybe so, but Georges didn't try to score a point. He just hit—I'll say he did.

Johnny Basham, the British welter-weight champion, is a clever leather pusher, but he did not stand a chance with Kid Lewis with his experience in the American ring. Lewis probably lost on points in the majority of the rounds, but he damaged Johnny so badly that his seconds had to throw the towel in to save their man from being cut to ribbons. Basham has plenty of stamina also, but he hasn't a kavoo wallop in his make-up.

Charles Ledoux, the French feather-weight champion, made short work of Jimmy Higgins, the British champ, yet Joe Lynch beat the Frenchman in America.

Arthur Wyns, the Belgian feather-weight champion, made such a mess of Mike Honeyman, the British champ, that they had to stop the contest to save the use of a putty knife and blotter for removing the Englishman from the ring. Wyns never bothered about boxing, but went after his man in good old one-round style that was surprising, coming as it were from a bruiser from Belgium.

"One of the ligaments of Bodie's right ankle was somewhat torn when his foot caught in the plate," said Mr. Huggins. "I do not know whether we lose his services for the rest of the season or not. Doctors assure me that there was no break."

PITTSBURG, Sept. 9.—Ping Bodie's ankle is fractured but how seriously has not been determined it was announced this morning at St. John's General hospital. An X-ray examination will be made later in the day.

RUTH GETS INJUNCTION AGAINST MOVIE FIRM

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—Upon the request of "Babe Ruth," member of the New York American baseball club, courts here have granted an injunction restraining the Keith, Proctor and Lowe theatres from showing moving pictures of the baseball player in action.

The pictures not only show Ruth in slow action pictures, but also show him knocking a home run in Cleveland during the Yankees' recent engagement there. Carl Mays, Kankakee pitcher who threw the ball that caused the death of Ray Chapman, and Tris Speaker, manager of the Cleveland Indians, also appear in the pictures.

CRUCIAL GAMES FOR CLEVELAND

Yankees Open Today In Forest City In First of Three Game Series—Reds Open In Boston.

By H. C. HAMILTON.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—The most "crucial" period of the season opens today in the American League—if anything could be more crucial than days which already have passed over the head of this tempestuous season.

Cleveland again leading the league is booked to meet the Yankees, now in second place, in a series of three games starting today in Cleveland. Last time the Yanks and Indians fought in Cleveland the New Yorkers fattened their standing by taking four games in a row.

Twenty-four games are left on the schedule of the Indians while only 19 remain for the Yankees to finish.

Chicago, which is in third place by a hair, has 20 left on the books. To win a pennant the Yankees must not only take the majority of the series in Cleveland, according to close calculation, but also must win nearly every game they have remaining, for Cleveland is certain to do nearly that well.

The White Sox will face the Red Sox today in a new series. It was in Boston that the champions were knocked off the top of the league.

The Giants and Dodgers tightened up the National League imbroglio when both won yesterday. The Giants snared a double-header and the Dodgers took a single game. The Reds, leading the league, were idle.

Today the Cubs will be entertained at the Polo Grounds by the Giants; the Cardinals are visitors in Brooklyn and the Reds open in Boston.

Alkali in Shampoos Bad For Washing Hair

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is Mulsified coconut oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap and beats anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

and it is planned to "tee off" for the first time early next summer.

COLUMBUS—An automobile upset when it hit a tree in the parkway in East Broad street. Herbert A. Lowery, 48, was pitched through the windshield. His head and face were badly cut. George Henry, 43, who was driving the machine, also was injured.
